

CU 6.6: ENGLISH

Director of studies: Angélique BOUCHES

General CU objectives:

- Acquire the oral and written comprehension skills required to achieve or approach the TOEIC target score (785).
- Maintain and deepen speaking and writing skills.
- Acquire the lexicon of the timber sector and the professional world.

Consists of:

- Module 1: Annual progress - level groups
- Module 2: Not applicable
- Module 3: Not applicable
- Module 4: Not applicable

Hourly volume

In-person

Self-directed study

0.00 H Lectures

20.00 H

0.00 H Tutorials

30.00 H Practicals

Positioning of the CU in the School reference system:

Semester 6

Units of skills

In accordance with the RNCP sheet

CU 6.6: ENGLISH

Module 1: Annual progress - level groups	Coefficient 1
Session leaders: Françoise FORIN-MATEOS, Angélique BOUCHES
Teaching assistants:
Prerequisites: B1 level
Teaching materials: Course notes – Presentation slides – Internet
Assessment methods: individual and in groups Class assignment– Homework– mock TOEIC, oral presentations

Learning outcomes	Description	Number of student hours (in-person)
		Lecture s	Tutorial s	Practica ls
Deepen your knowledge in order to reach the TOEIC score of 785. Practice continuous speaking. Prepare for the internship. Know how to acquire knowledge independently.	Grammar, TOEIC-specific vocabulary, TOEIC training tests, TOEIC-specific format and tactics, awareness and error recognition practice. Speak individually or in interaction. Learn to draft a CV and a job application letter. Work independently in the language laboratory. Become familiar with English used in the field of timber engineering			30.00
		0.00	0.00	30.00